With reference to the above, the case has been got examined and as per the report received it is to be informed that as per the directions of Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, the CGHS facility cannot be extended to absorbed working employees of MTNL, however possibility are being explored with respect to retired employees of MTNL.

Accordingly, MTNL has written a letter to DOT for giving CGHS facility to their retired employees (combined pension holder and pro-rata pension holder) as allowed in case of retired employees of BSNL. The reply of DoT is awaited.

This is for your information.
